To Our Friend

MRS. MARGERY L. JOHNSON

"A friend is he who sets his heart upon us, is happy with us and delights in us; . . . is willing and fully engaged to do all he can for us, and on whom we can rely in all cases."—William Ellery Channing

"Push in your chairs! I want this talking stopped!" . . . Few students who have ever entered the library of B.H.S. will ever forget these sayings or the woman who said them. Mrs. Margery Johnson, in her own inimitable fashion, created them and in her position as librarian used them frequently. Her duties are many and varied. Not only does she efficiently keep the functions of the library operating smoothly, but also she adds an individual atmosphere to the room which makes it seem to say, "Welcome students, may I be of assistance to you?"

Mrs. Johnson herself has won the affections of the entire student body. The class of '52 especially recognizes the many favors and kind deeds which she has performed in its behalf. At any time a student may approach her asking assistance in finding reference material, or perhaps just for her wise counsel. She is never too busy to help solve the tiny problems which seem so big to a sophomore, or the intricate ones which are so complex to a senior.

In her capacity as journalism instructor and Echo sponsor she keeps the interest of the students always in mind, ever trying to add a little more spark to the daily school routines. In addition to her other duties she also has assumed the responsibility of instructing a course in junior speech as well as sponsoring the Tri-Hi-Y. Nevertheless, she still finds time to keep a happy home for her husband and her pet dog, "Mitzi."

A friendly smile, an enjoyable personality, and a helpful manner have enabled Mrs. Johnson to become a friend to all in the high school. Interwoven into the memories of the graduating class will be recollections of happy moments spent in her presence.

Because of the sincere manner in which Mrs. Johnson performed her many tasks and for the innumerable times she has assisted every one of us, we the senior class are happy to dedicate the 1952 SHINGAS to Mrs. Margery Johnson, who to us will always remain the lovable Mrs. "J."

In Appreciation

To merely say thanks seems inappropriate for someone who has done so much for our class in the way of finances, education, and guidance during our senior year. As sponsor of the class, you, Mr. Charlesworth did a remarkable job, even though we often strained your patience. Your charming personality, which greeted us as sophomores and led us as seniors, will long remain in the memories of the class of '52.

Mr. William L. Charlesworth

Mr. William W. Paterick

Patience, understanding, and more patience are required to sponsor a yearbook. As adviser to our Shingas, Mr. Paterick has exemplified these qualities in innumerable times. His constant cooperation was a guidelight to the staff as they planned the Shingas and to the entire class as they planned their lives. We, the graduating seniors, sincerely say, "Thank you, Mr. Paterick."

Dear Jack,

Looking through this ~~shag~~ ops, Shingas
it seems as if everybody is wishing you luck and fortune, so there's nothing I can do except wish you more and lots of it. Remember all the fun we had during 6th period when Miss Kirchner was showing movies. Remember too, all the fun we had after school at the park and at the ball games. Remember the time when the boys from Bridgewater (that was all had a crush on your cousin (Grove) that was a riot! Remember the good times we had in your back yard playing basketball. Keep up the way you're going and I'll make you a basketball star yet! Somebody tells me you're moving to Minn., I hope they're wrong, cause I sure want to see you in school next year. Well, I'm running out of paper and word so I'll stop. So long and Best Wishes.
Yours truly,

Jim (E-Z CREDIT) E zuela

A wise administrator, a competent adviser, a just reprimander, and a thoughtful friend could all be applied to Mr. Linn, our principal. In his own inimitable fashion he made high school beneficial as well as enjoyable for us. The class of '52 thanks you, Mr. Linn, for your many kind favors and expresses our congratulations for 25 years of service well done.

Mary Grove

As Mr. Linn's secretary, Mrs. Grove always performed her duties silently but efficiently. Her cheery smile and friendly manner often times made going to the office a pleasant experience. Thank you for being just as you are.

THE MARK PIKE

Dear Jack (Bringing Black Bombs) I well a couple of days and this year will be over with + we can have fun at the pool + other places. I have had a very good time this year, and being with you has made it more fun. Remember the fun we had playing B.C.C. + playing basketball + volleyball after lunch. I hope to be seeing you this summer. Well we have had a lot of fun up at the park this year. Well I just ran out of blue ink and I borrowed Marge Spear's pen with green ink
I sure have had a lot of fun with you + "Hobbes" + "Kumbe" and all the others. Well even if you don't go to Beaver High this year, be good + have fun next year. I'm sure there's a lot of girls out in Deluth
+ I know you won't have any trouble finding both kind of friends girl + Boy. Well at any rate you'll have fun. I want to wish you all the luck in the world with your studies next year. Well even out there you'll probably have to take a famed subject Latin. You might not be the best in Latin, but you make up for it in Shop. get that. Well near the end of the page now so saying the best of luck to you forever.

Captain And His Crew

Len Weaver—Len, a triple threat halfback, maneuvered from the starboard side. At the end of the voyages he was decorated "captain of the crew."

Ralph Clinard—Signal caller of the crew, Ralph proved his worth as a reliable navigator.

Dick Crisswell—This huge cargo held down a tackle spot for the gang. Fast and aggressive, Dick stopped all goal snatching pirates.

Tom Equels—The captain's port side running mate's churning legs made him a hard man to sink. His spirit raised the fight of the team.

George Gula—George filled a guard position and was a bulwark on defense. His mighty charge sunk many opponent's dreams.

Phil Hamilton—Anchoring down an end position for the crew, Phil kept enemy backs in deep water.

Russ Kerr—Russ's lightning speed and drive dropped anchors on the enemy crews. In the Rocky tussle he was an Armada in himself.

Phil McCoy—This bone-crushing center was a mainstay to the gang. His "sail on" cry sparked the squad to victory.

Jack Seaman—This rocking guard foiled many enemy attempts to break through the line.

Wayne Todd—A senior deckhand, Buddy kept the boys in condition by dishing out their supplies.

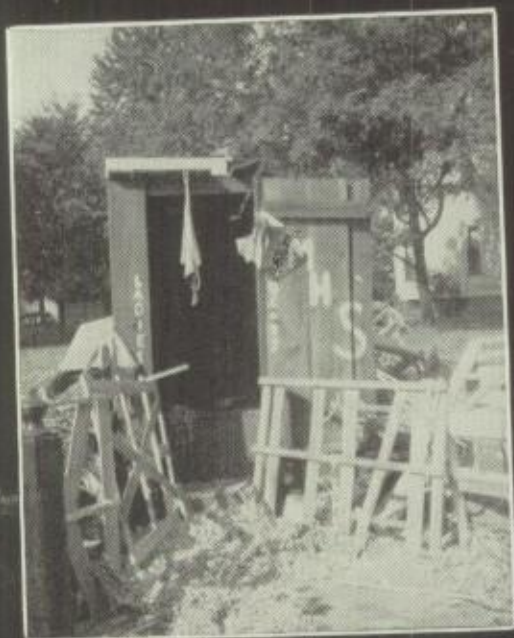

Duane Wakely — Another senior deckhand, Duane was always ready to enter the thick of battle and render aid to the "salts."

Jerry Watterson — Although in his first year with the crew, Jerry showed fight and determination which landed him a berth on the first deck.

Jim Wilson—Jim was a halfback who maneuvered from either side with equal success.

Senior mates of the B. H. S. Sink'um

P a t t e r n m a k e r—Don "Champ" Firestone. Champ was one of our best play-makers during the past season. He was a hustler and a set shot artist, always displaying fine teammanship. Because of these qualities he shares with Bill the title of "Honorary Co-captain" for the 1952 basketball season.

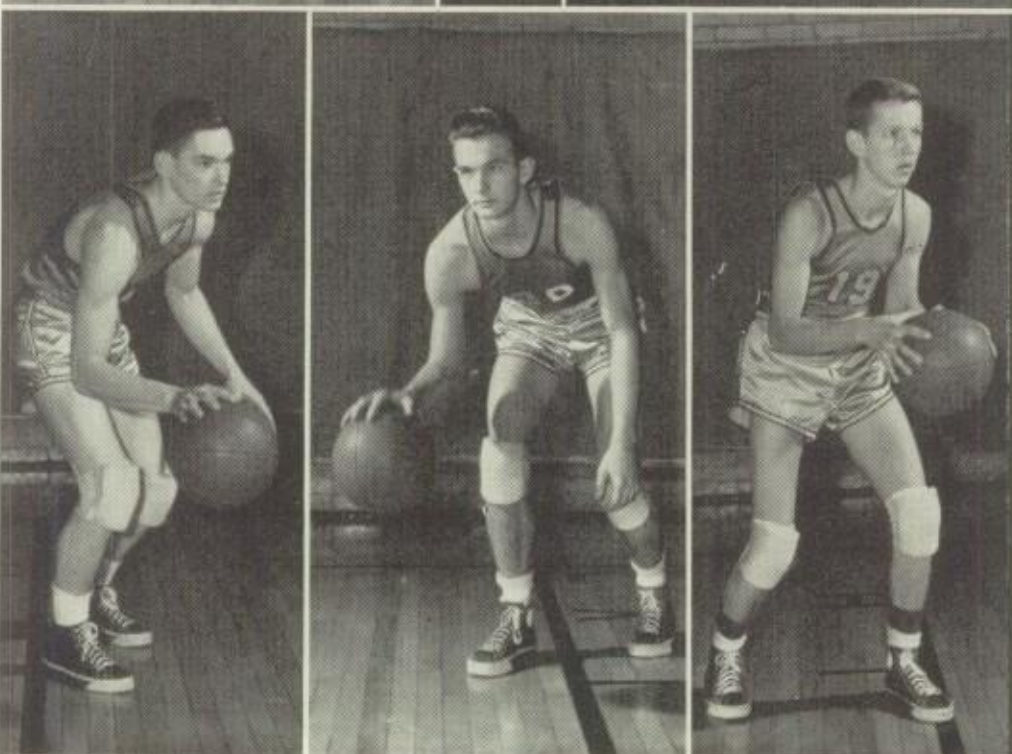

Air Controlman—Bill "Goat" Anderson. Goat held the key position of center on our squad and in recognition of his sharp shooting and rebounding he was elected as "Honorary Co-captain." Our opponents gasped at his height which enabled him to score with apparent ease, ending the season as top scorer of the squad.

Damage Controlman — Phil "Creeper" Hamilton. Phil had control over the safety of the crew on several occasions. He showed his true colors as he maneuvered those mighty muscles to out-play any opposing landlubbers.

Yeoman — Chuck "Goose" Grant. Chuck was our senior manager this year. He kept the boys in good shape, looking after statistics as well as the equipment of the entire squad. His wit spurred the Guys as he perhaps reminded them of, "small but MIGHTY!"

Navigator—John "Smokey" Shelar. Smokey was another member of the crew who showed his stuff in play-making and ball handling. It was a boost to the morale of the team to know he was on hand to steer the team to victory whenever called upon.

Electrician's Mate — Chick was one of our dependable sparks in the senior lineup. Oftentimes his performance meant a connection between our team and victory.

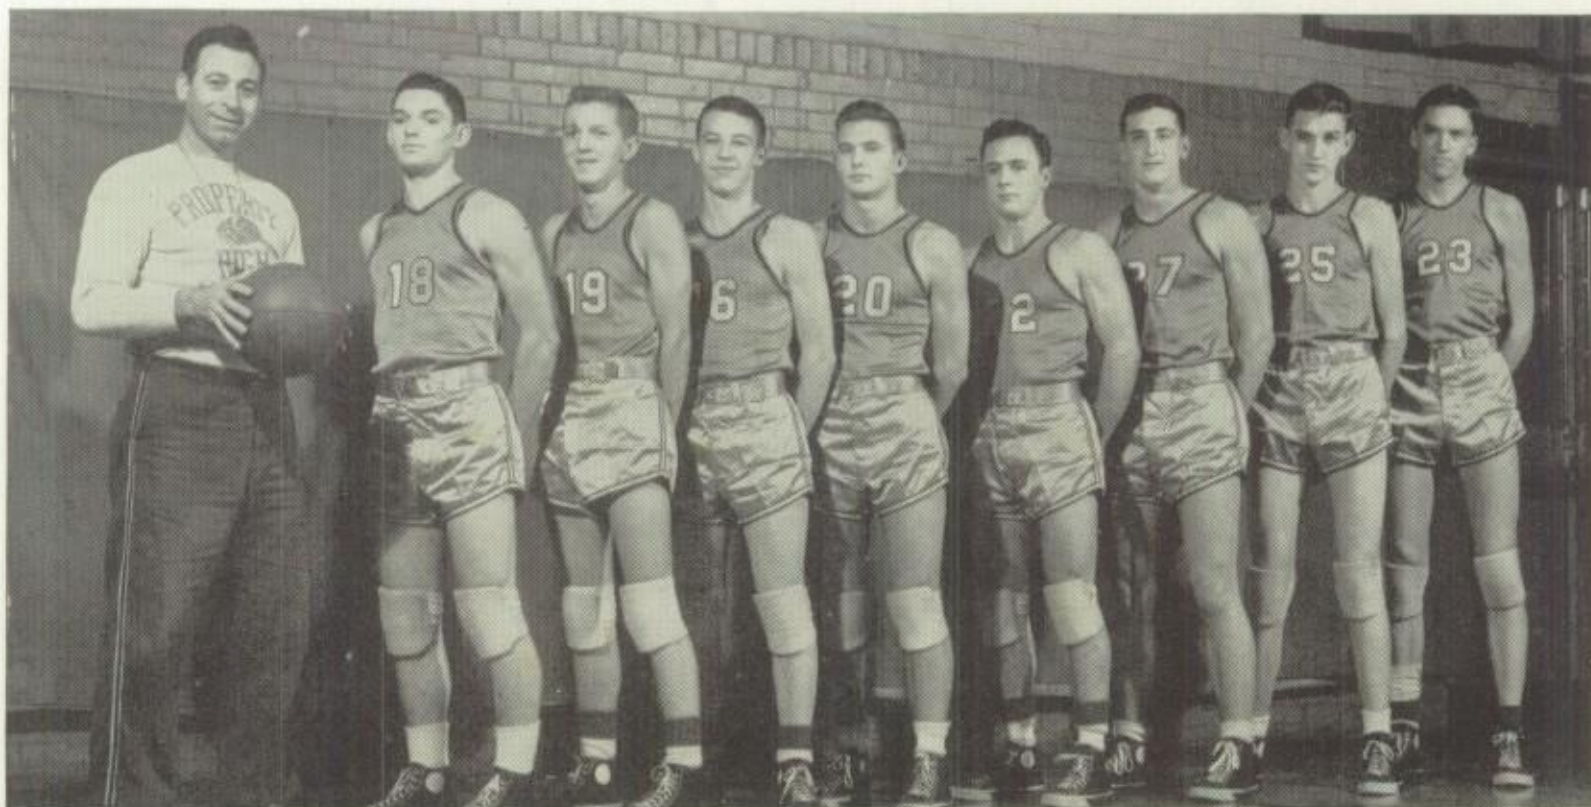

Engineman—Ed Renner. Ed was the spark plug of the team during the past season. He was everywhere at once repairing the broken morale of the crew. His fighting spirit added fuel to the victory seeking crew.

Radarman — Len Weaver. Len was our radarman because of his quick reactions upon spotting how to break up plays of the opposition. Forever stealing the ball, he proved to be a valuable man to have around.

Coach Jim Cutri's quintet of seniors opened the season with a bang. The entire school had hopes for a championship but instead Beaver ended up in a tie with Freedom for second place with 16 wins and 5 losses. Beaver had a total of 1,340 points to 1,028 for the opponents. The type of ball which the team played was outstanding and it is doubtful that the team members, the coaches, their opponents, or students of B.H.S. will ever forget this basketball season or the excitement, tension, and school spirit which surrounded it.

Honor Group Of 1951

It is a distinct honor for the class of 1952 to dedicate this page of the Shingas to those students in the graduating class of 1951 who were outstanding in their scholastic endeavors.

Those who ranked highest in the class were:—first, Mary Quay Eaton; second, Marilyn Maxine Eakin; third, Marjory Kane; and fourth, Sally Lou Garvin. The entire Honor group included the preceding four and Dolores Bonita Hult, Mary Jean Lewis, Ronald Andrew Miller, Nancy Louise Nichols, Raymond George Schindle, Rose Marie Schneider, and Audrey Lenore Thompson.

These students compose a group that is made up of the highest 10 percent of the graduating class. As other groups are rewarded for their efforts along various lines during high school life so are these rewarded for their outstanding achievements along scholastic lines. The class of 1952 wishes them continued success in their activities of the future.

Sophomore Year

Well, we finally made our first year in B.H.S.!! All the sophs (that's us) straggling in the halls trying to figure out which senior is telling the truth about rooms, etc . . . Anxiously scanning our handbooks to learn the Alma Mater . . . Never did learn it that year . . . "Fifteen rahs for the team." We tied Rochester for the first time in the history of our skirmishes. Could it be our Soph subs were good luck? Our industrious crew finally broke into the limelight by sponsoring the Football Dance entitled "Football Heaven." It was a huge success (even if the crepe paper did sag a little). Didn't Larue High make a lovely queen? Next came our Bobcat dances to the lilting strains of Vic Trola and his record playing orchestra. Brother sophs take a bow . . . At least we attended them even if the male members of the crew didn't display their dancing talents but rather sat down on the side decks and well . . . can't you remember? Basketball season wasn't much to brag about, but it was fun. (The reserves were pretty hot but wait 'till next year . . . nuff said) . . . Spring is finally here, kiddies. No more snow and slush . . . We, the Sans Club, went to the zoo to see the monkeys, (however we did ignore the local talent displayed by our own monsters, sea species). In spring a young man's fancy turns to anything but girls . . . but girls think of proms such as the "Underwater Fantasy" sponsored by the Junior class. Some of us were lucky enough to go with seniors no less) . . . Our Boys made good spectators. Final exams coming up—anybody got a "pistil"? Not the bank-bang variety either. Spring also brings May Day with us lovely girls as the four seasons . . . Now on to bigger things, after all next year we are upper classmen.

Junior Year

In the front door please, after all we are privileged now!! "Fight team fight." They came, we fought, and they conquered. Need we say more? . . . Can anyone forget the fears of chemistry and the first experiment? . . . "Clear thinking looms ahead . . . but that was before valence" . . . Mrs. Cook gave us dress rehearsals before we began our super salesman routine which gave us a total that swamped last year's. "Who was in my territory?" On we rolled to "Our Miss Brooks", our first attempt in drama. The old saying,

"the show must go on" was a perfect title for rehearsals, especially when the snow came and stayed. Miss Brooks, our Vonnie, trudged through snow drifts in order that our class once again could produce a success. The night of the play, one of our "characters" said, "I've forgotten my lines," and was almost too convincing! Anyone remember poetry reading in 211? Addled juniors struggled with chemicals and Mr. Reber struggled with addled juniors. "Can anyone prove this theorem and when was the War of 1812?" All right . . . go ahead and scoff. After all we are only juniors. Parlez vous Francais? No we're not going to Europe, just to "April In Paris", our prom . . . Original Paris chapeaus (hats to you) decorated trees along the Rue de la Paix.

Strolling couples munching on French pasteries provided more atmosphere. Then the wee hours celebrations . . . Did you know that french fries, cotton candy, and the wildcat don't mix? Last day of school, see you next year . . . SENIORS.

Senior Year

"This is Our Year!!" Remember the day Mr. Paterick said that in pep meeting to inspire us to win a game? That was only a start which spurred the student body to great heights as far as spirit and cooperation were concerned. From the time we first got that queer feeling when Mr. Linn said "Seniors are dismissed," until the last diploma was handed out, we were determined to be good leaders. "Our year was highlighted by a football team that won more games than any other team since we had been in high school. To add to their glory, we became the proud possessors of the "Old Oaken Bucket" in spite of a ton of gooey mud and icy snow. But the student body captured honors too. We had the best spirit seen within these ancient walls for a long time. Who could forget the Midland pep meeting and the O.H.G., or the Rochy pep rally and the victory assembly. Doesn't Phil blush nice? Culminating the season was the beautiful "Football Heaven" dance. Vonnie Heath, our football queen, and Len Weaver, honorary football captain, reigned like true monarchs . . . Do you happen to remember Halloween and the charming (?) cheerleaders that led the band in the parade? . . . Sue Brown and her acquaintance with the police department . . . Came Shingas time and we had the usual lack of aspiring applicants. Mr. Paterick survived, although at times we wondered if he would. The junior class play "Life With Father" was a huge success but we still have a soft spot in our hearts for "Miss Brooks" . . . My weren't Macbeth and debating just charming? (no comment) . . . "Will you please stop erasing over the typing well." (saith Mr. Smith). At last came basketball season and our boys didn't disappoint us. They displayed the same type of fine ball playing as in jr. high and many of us got sentimental just thinking about the good old days. Dramatic time came with "You Can't Take It With You." Miss Bartlett said there were many character parts and we thought our characters did a pretty swell job, didn't you? The high point in our social calendar was the prom. It was wonderful. The juniors really did themselves proud . . . As spring came we saw May Day, the senior dance, baccalaureate and everything else that means graduation fast approaching. The last day of school found us feeling downhearted in spite of those famous words, "I'll be so glad when I get out of school, I'll . . . yes?" A lot of memories have been rolled up into the years that have meant high school to us, but none of us will ever forget "Our Year" . . .

Reserved for Hobes

Dear Jack,

Remember the fun we had in the "Deaf" room you were about the best tool boy I ever saw next to myself. Remember all the fun we had in music and art we were always joking around. How about the times we had in the park with the Bongo Brothers. Denay and Ike. Keep up your basketball will make the team sometime soon & 'hope' you don't I will because if I hope you remember for sure. and Mota like I will later does 'F' and how mad you remember you were when you got it that a nice day to see you so I hope to see you next year in High School. I hope you don't go to prison.

Though we sometimes scorned the guidance you, Mr. Schaffer, gave, the effect of it has made its mark upon our lives and we are now grateful. Your philosophical leadership has given to the graduating class a knowledge of life as the eyes of a wise and understanding man sees it.
